'Jabberwocky' by Lewis Carrol

'Twas brillig, and the slithy toves
Did gyre and gimble in the wabe;
All mimsy were the borogoves,
And the mome raths outgrabe.

This poem tells a story and this first verse sets the scene or location for the story. What kind of location do you think this is describing? You have to use your imagination.

"Beware the Jabberwock, my son
The jaws that bite, the claws that catch!
Beware the Jubjub bird, and shun
The frumious Bandersnatch!"

What kind of character do you imagine might be speaking here and who are they speaking to?

He took his vorpal sword in hand;
Long time the manxome foe he sought—
So rested he by the Tumtum tree,
And stood awhile in thought.

The action begins. Is the person here the same as the one who was speaking in the last verse?

And, as in uffish thought he stood,
The Jabberwock, with eyes of flame,
Came whiffling through the tulgey wood,
And burbled as it came!

And, as in uffish thought he stood,
The Jabberwock, with eyes of flame,
Came whiffling through the tulgey wood,
And burbled as it came!

One, two! One, two! And through and through
The vorpal blade went snicker-snack!
He left it dead, and with its head
He went galumphing back.

Who do you think is speaking now?

"And hast thou slain the Jabberwock?
Come to my arms, my beamish boy!
O frabjous day! Callooh! Callay!"
He chortled in his joy.

Why do you think this last verse is the same as the first?

'Twas brillig, and the slithy toves
Did gyre and gimble in the wabe;
All mimsy were the borogoves,
And the mome raths outgrabe.
1) Read the poem carefully and in pairs sort the highlighted words into the boxes below. List the words in the ‘a’ half of each section and in the ‘b’ half write what they have in common which made you put them in that section.

2) Still in pairs, each make a mini dictionary of Jabberwocky words, discussing and deciding what you think they mean. You may have some different ideas from your partner. We will compare everyone’s meanings afterwards.

3) Draw a picture of the Jubjub bird, the Bandersnatch or the Tumtum Tree and label it with some interesting invented nouns and adjectives.

4) Write a poem or short story of your own using some more invented nouns, verbs, adjectives and also some adverbs. Make these as descriptive as you can. When you have finished, exchange it with someone else and see whether you have the same view of the word meanings in each other’s story or poem.
